Presenting his illustrated slide presentation
“Swedish Settlements of the South Shore of Lake Michigan”

Thursday, October 25, 2018 at 7:00 p.m.

The Lincoln Center, Room 108-09 - 2450 Lincoln Street, Highland

Immigrants from Sweden were the first non-English speaking people to move into the Indiana Dunes region and establish settlements. Their legacy can be seen today.

This program and its accompanying book, note that these Swedes established more than a dozen local churches, most of which are still active today. They built homes out of logs, lumber, and bricks. Cleared and farmed the land. Worked for the railroads, the brick factories and established businesses, some of which are still in business today. Several of the early Swedes served in the Union army in the Civil War. Nearly all got American citizenship and some were even elected to political office.

Because many of their last names were similar to common “American names” (such as Anderson and Carlson), they quickly assimilated into American culture. The fourth of July was widely celebrated, but so were Swedish traditions at Midsummer and the Christmas season. Today descendants of Swedes still learn Swedish songs and dances and celebrate the traditions of their forbears. Even non-Swedes know about Vikings and may eat Swedish meatballs. Smörgåsbord has become an American word—though to Swedes it has slightly different meaning. Swedes and their descendants have helped build the Calumet Area. Ken Schoon, the author, is not descended from Swedes, but he is married to the granddaughter of Swedish immigrants. His earlier works include Calumet Beginnings, Dreams of Duneland, and Shifting Sands, all published by Indiana University Press, and City Trees published by Stackpole Books.

The program and book illustrate a colorful heritage. There will be a book signing at the end of the presentation. “Swedish Settlements of the South Shore of Lake Michigan” is newly released and contains more than 400 illustrations. It sells for $30.00 to anyone interested in purchasing.

Please join us for an interesting and enjoyable evening with Ken Schoon.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the evening.

To: The Griffith Business Community

From: Gus Lehnerer, New Oberpfalz Brewing

New Oberpfalz Brewing and Treasured Friends Animal Rescue and Adoption are planning the 2018 Griffith Barktoberfest Mutt Strut for Saturday, October 27th. Dog owners from all over descend on Griffith to strut their Halloween costumed canines around downtown Griffith and visit local businesses for trick or treating.

We would like to list your business as a participating trick or treat stop. All that is required from you is:

1. Permission for us to list your business as a place where these dog walkers can visit for trick or treating from 10:30am-1:30pm on Saturday, October 27th. Dogs WILL be in your business at this time (or you can setup outside if you don't want dogs in your business). ALL dogs are required to be leashed.
2. You agree to offer some sort of trick or treat item. It can be as simple as a dog biscuit, a logo pen, a coupon for your business, or something more substantial. Last year, we had 140 dog walkers, and we hope to move closer to 200 this year, so plan accordingly to insure you don't run out of items. You may offer a number of different items, so say that you wanted to reward people for visiting you early, you can offer a valuable prize early and then less valuable prizes later.
3. You agree to help promote the event via your social media feeds, with a poster we will provide, or other ways that you deem appropriate.

The goal of this event is to bring people into downtown Griffith to showcase all that our local business community has to offer while allowing them to have fun with their dogs. In years past, people have come from as far away as South Bend and Chicago but most of the participants are locals, many of whom we had never enjoyed as customers. This is a great day to showcase what your business offers.

To sign up (or if you have any questions about the event), please email me at dan.lehnerer@newoberpfalz.com and list:

Your business/location/office name

Address

Contact name, email and phone # (I will not list personal contact information)

any SPECIAL trick or treat item you may want to offer (free x for first y number of Strutters, etc)

I will develop a walking map for people to use and list your business along with any special offers that you would like to bring attention to.

100% of the registration proceeds from this event benefit Treasured Friends Animal Rescue & Adoption.

I hope you can help make this a great day for Griffith and a charity that does so much to help animals and the people who care for them.

Sincerely,

Gus
